

Fredericksburg Area 13th Annual College Forum

“Navigating the Selective
College Admission Process”

Thursday, March 7 - 7:00 p.m.
University of Mary Washington
Dodd Auditorium

Fredericksburg area college bound high school sophomores, juniors and their parents are invited to join a panel discussion, and question/answer session with college admission professionals from University of Mary Washington, University of Richmond, University of Virginia, and William and Mary.

Topics to be discussed will include:

- Beginning the College Search
- The Importance of the Campus Visit
- How to Make Yourself Competitive in the
 - Admissions Process
- Scholarships and Financial Aid

Please join us at 6:00 p.m. as financial aid presenters and guidance counselors will be available to discuss college financial planning, scholarships, and the application process.

Brought to you courtesy of The Commonwealth Governor's School
Parent Teacher Organization and the University of Mary Washington
Office of Admissions