

Welcome!

New Student Orientation

Your success starts with orientation!

Welcome to Germanna Community College

In order to enroll in classes you are expected to attend a New Student Orientation. At orientation you will receive the information you need to prepare for, select, and pay for your classes. Information regarding placement tests, disability services and veteran's services will also be provided.

Orientation sessions are offered several times per week. Register online at www.germannna.edu. Click on upcoming events and you will find a New Student Orientation session on the Calendar.
