Pathways for Future Engineers

About the Program

<https://eng.vt.edu/ceed/ceed-pre-college-programs/Pathways/applypathways.html>

Pathways for Future Engineers is a FREE Virginia Tech multi-year program for first-generation students that includes pre-college activities (while students are still in high school) as well as additional support as students pursue their undergraduate degree. Program expenses are completely covered for students and a “Pathways Partner”- a family representative, mentor, coach, etc. Students in a Virginia high school who will be the first in their families to attend college (i.e., neither parent has received a bachelor's degree in any field) are eligible for the Pathways for Future Engineers program. Students who will be entering 10th, 11th, or 12th grade in Fall 2019 are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility

Students in a Virginia high school who will be the first in their families to attend college (i.e., neither parent has received a bachelor's degree in any field) are eligible for the Pathways for Future Engineers program. Students who will be entering 10th, 11th, or 12th grade in Fall 2019 are encouraged to apply.

Lodging, Food, and Transportation:

All transportation, food, and lodging for students and Pathways Partners will be provided by Virginia Tech. More details will be provided after Pathways participants and partners are selected.
